

Dear Habimah Families,

Getting excited for our show?! Because it's the end of week 2 which means the performance date is only 7 days away!!!

Ms. Universe 2010 Wednesday, August 11th

As part of our show preparation, we will be sending home a tentative costume list today. There may be minor changes to this costume list. Please do not go out and buy items your child does not already have! Let us know if there are any problems!

This Monday, August 2nd, Habimah is taking a field trip to Bird Bowl. Everyone must wear SNEAKERS & SOCKS! Campers may bring money to purchase food and beverage at the Bird Bowl snack bar, however please do not send them with more than $20.00.

Enjoy your weekend!

Sincerely,

Alina Schaefer
