The Dave and Mary Alper Jewish Community Center is more than a recreational center, more than a place to make friends and exchange information and ideas. Our JCC is the very center of our Jewish identity and is an integral part of Jewish life and community in South Florida.

Helping our Culture thrive

For thousands of years the Jewish people have used the arts and education to enrich our lives, celebrate our traditions and build our unique identity. Jewish art, music, poetry and writings help to preserve our culture from generation to generation.

The purpose of Neshama—the Alper JCC's Cultural Arts Society—is to perpetuate the richness of our Jewish heritage for our South Dade community.

Neshama members will receive:

- 1 Patron Ticket for the JCC Women's Day Luncheon
- 2 Premier Seating tickets for 2 performances to be selected from the VIP (Very Important Patron) Cultural Arts package of performances
- 2 Premier Seating tickets for six lectures and speakers during the Annual JCC Jewish Book Fair
- Invitations to all the Opening Receptions
- Invitations to all the Opening Receptions of the Lisa Ann Watson Children's Museum
- Membership discount rate for JCC Cultural Arts classes, workshops and events
- 3 Passes to use the JCC state-of-the-art Fitness Center
- The JCC monthly newsletter—CENTRESTAGE

Creating our Future

We need you to ensure the future of the arts in our community. With your help the Noreen Gordon and Steven Sablotsky Cultural Arts & Education Center can be a place where Jewish authors to be heard and performers to be seen, a gathering place to enjoy a lecture or a performance with your family, a home for an art exhibition and a “greenhouse” for budding Jewish artists.

We need you to ensure the funding of programs, projects and exhibitions. All of this is possible if, through Neshama, we can guarantee the funding of programs, projects and exhibitions.

Neshama is a women's giving circle, created to nurture the art and soul of the cultural arts programs at the Dave and Mary Alper Jewish Community Center. In this new millennium, join us to help ensure our identity for all Jews living in South Dade.

Imagine the possibilities. Dare to dream.
